Myer announces Boxing Day offers

Boxing Day has long been one of Australia's biggest days of shopping, and this year Myer customers will once again be able to take advantage of extraordinary savings and exclusive offers designed to make the holiday season even brighter.

This Boxing Day is the perfect time to give the house or wardrobe a refresh, stock up on beauty favourites, or simply make the most of vouchers customers may have been gifted for Christmas, with offers of up to 60% off men's and women's fashion, 50% off beauty, 50% off homeware essentials and 20% off toys.

On Boxing Day, Myer's store teams are expected to handle more than 355,000 transactions, with the peak hour alone averaging 700 transactions per minute as shoppers rush to snap up the best deals.

Quotes attributed to Myer's Chief Merchandise Officer, Belinda Slifkas:

“Boxing Day is one of the most anticipated shopping events of the year, with customers eager to take advantage of our incredible deals. This year, Myer has up to 60% off men's and women's fashion, 50% off beauty, 50% off homeware essentials, and a wide range of other exciting offers.

“For many Australians, Boxing Day is the perfect opportunity to refresh their wardrobe or home, stock up on their favourite products at unbeatable prices, or make the most of gift cards they have received for Christmas.

“We're expecting it to be a very busy day as shoppers embrace both the convenience of online shopping and the buzz of visiting our stores. Boxing Day has evolved into more than just a day of discounts, it's a time when people seek both value and inspiration.

“Cookware and homeware are set to be popular choices as households prepare for summer gatherings, while beauty will no doubt be a crowd favourite with great discounts on leading brands including Lancôme, Clinique, Carolina Herrera, and Estée Lauder.”
